

Dear Mom,

I just wanted to say that you are an incredible person! You care about every single person on this Earth even if you have only known them for 2 hours! You are as unique as someone can be!!! If it weren't for you I would not be the person that I am today! I wouldn't be as positive, or kind! You complete me and my heart! Even though we have our odd disagreements we still love each other to the moon and back!!!

I wanted to thank you incredibly because you have helped me with all of my problems throughout the year (which have been many). You are the person that has taught me all of the things that I need to know! Without you I would be lost and a chunk of my heart would be missing!

I also wanted to say that I am so proud of you for what you do for us and me! Not just around the house but your job! You are astonishing at making people smile and you are wonderful at the fish workshop. What I learned at O.E.L.C. is that we are on a life's journey. And along the way we will bump into people that are different than us! And I think that you will bump into many people that are not as enthusiastic as you! But just because their life is not as perfect as some, doesn't mean that when we bump into them we should fall down! And if we do fall down we need the strength from each other to get back up. You have that strength!

I hope when you read this letter it brings a smile to your face and a tingle in your heart! We all have our really good days and our horrible days! Trust me on that one! I have had both one after each other! But we just keep smiling pretty, keep our head high and nobody will tell that we fell down!!!

Since you have helped me with my problems, I am here to help with yours! I will always be on the other side, whether it's by phone, computer or the other side of the table, I will still be there, ready to listen. 😊😊

Mommy I love you all the way to the moon and back!!!

Love your little princess,

Jo
